Co-Ops

The Association opened its forty warehouses in South Carolina and border counties last Tuesday by maintaining the same advances as last year on most grades of tobacco delivered by its members and by doubling its first cash advance on its lowest grades.

This year's opening of the co-operative houses was the most successful in the history of the association, and its members who carried tobacco to their own houses last Tuesday took back their checks for the first advance of 1924 and, in addition, divided the $732,000 which brought their total receipts to exactly seven-eighths of the bankers' valuation on their 1923 deliveries.

In view of the enormous production of last year in the South Carolina belt and the inferior quality of this year's crop, association members seemed every where to be highly pleased with this year's advances, and particularly so at a number of points where a comparison of the auction houses and co-operative floors proved very favorable to the association.

Numbers of new members sign up with the association at our markets, taking advantage of the two weeks which remained in which farmers of South Caro ina who are not members of the A ociation will be given the opportunity to place their 1924 crop in the pool.

No tobacco of the 1924 crop will be accepted from new members after August 20 in South Carolina and border counties, according to the recent statement of the association's directors who announced that they have made arrangements to handle the 1924 deliveries on the basis of the present membership.

Except for the slight extension of time allowed to the association's members of South Carolina, membership books will be closed for deliveries of the 1924 crop by new members on the opening dates of other belts which have been announced as follows: Eastern North Carolina, September 2; Central Carolina, September 16; Old Belt of Virginia and North Carolina, October 1.

Richard R. Patterson, General Manager of the tobacco association and A. R. Breedlove, manager of its leaf department, made an inspection of the association's receiving points throughout the South Carolina belt and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the situation in that section during the opening days.

Boys and Girls—Agriculture

County Agent, W. H. Byrne, Misses Bettie Morris, Kate O'Brien, Bessie Gunter, Christine Garrett, Edith Martin, Violet Nattycombe, Lola Smythe, Marjorie Martin, Louise Shirey, and Mess s. Fred Twyman, Robert Hale, Raymond Lacadio, Joseph Garrett, William Bingham, Bernard Childers, and Robert Shirey attended the Short Course at Blacksburg.

The State Short Course at V. P. I. was most inspirational and instructive. The most altruistic spirit was displayed throughout the meeting. V. P. I. was indeed very hospitable and everyone is most appreciative of the friendly welcome there. The keynote of the meeting was the training of leadership. There were about 600 boys and girls there. Appomattox is proud of her four members of the "All Star Organization" which is a National Club of the efficient club members.

Our All Star members are: Byrne, Misses Louise Shirey, Bessie Gunter and Christine Garrett.

Those who attended, sincerely thank Mr. Byrne for making possible our happy trip.

Wedding Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ferguson announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Sammie, to Mr. Guy Furr, of Bluefield, W. Va. The marriage to take place in early fall.

Vosburgh--Coleman

A quiet marriage was solemnized at the home of H. C. Babcock Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. H. Stubbs, of the Methodist church, when Miss Pearl Coleman, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Cornelia Coleman of Lynchburg, became the bride of Harry M. Vosburgh, of Syracuse, N. Y., in the presence of a number of friends. Miss Ruth Caldwell of Appomattox was maid of honor, while Edward Miles, of Lynchburg acted as best man. The bride wore a gown of white crepe with accessories to match. Mr. and Mrs. Vosburgh will reside at the Igloe Farm, where the groom is employed.

VERA

The rain Saturday night did a world of good, and put new hope into the heart of a host of farmers in this section.

Wheat threshing is the order of the day, and, we understand a fairly goo l yield is realized.

Mrs. Charles Grow and daughter, who spent two weeks in Roanoke, have returned.

Mrs. R. A. Steffans gave an alfresco party to some of her young friends Wednesday night. The porch was decorated in pink and yellow, with Chinese lanterns etc. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and all voted it a very pleasant evening. Mr. Jeff Kinney came down from Lynchburg to attend the party.

Mrs. A. C. Menefee who has been visiting in Lynchburg has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Cowles, of Toano, visited relatives here this week.

Mrs. H. B. Foster and baby Marguerite, of Littleton, N. C., are visiting Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinney.

Mr. Percy Reynolds of Richmond, is at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Budd (nee Miss Thelma Hammersley, of Farmville, are the proud possessors of a tiny baby girl — Congratulations!

Larger than the fish that swallowed Jonah—The great sea-monster that was captured off the Florida coast in 1917 and was exhibited for months at Miami, Florida, on board the Yacht Famiami, at the Bay Front, opposite the Royal Palm Park and Band Concerts. It may still be there for aught we know. This is a true fish story and has had a tendency to silence the people who have derided the story of Jonah. We append the statistics which are published in advertising the curiosity—"Captured by Capt. Chas. H. Thompson, South of Miami. This creature measures 45 feet in length, weighs 15 tons or nearly 30,000 pounds, its circumference is 23 ft. 9 inches, diameter 8 ft. 3 inches, its mouth 38 inches wide and 43 inches deep, its tongue 40 inches long, several thousand teeth, its liver alone weighed 1700 pounds or more than ten full-grown men together, its tail measures 10 feet from tip to tip, its pectoral fin is 5 feet long and 3 feet wide, its dorsal fin 3 feet long and 2 feet 9 inches wide, its gills are 4 feet long and its hide 8 inches thick. It had swallowed an Octopus weighing 400 pounds, a black fish weighing 1500 pounds and 500 pounds of coral also was found in its stomach. It could have swallowed forty Jonahs without the slightest pangs of indigestion. It smashed a boat into thousands of pieces and crushed the rudder and propeller of a 31-ton Yacht, with a single swish of its mighty tail, five harpoon thrusts and 150 large calibre rifle bullets served only to increase the fury, and five days were required finally to kill it. Scientific authorities believe that the creature was an inhabitant of depths more than 1500 feet below the surface, and that it was blown up by some subterranean or volcanic upheaval which injured its diving apparatus, so that it was unable to return to its native haunts. The creature is not classified in natural history, the genus or species is not known. It is the largest specimen of the fish tribe known in history. Every undertaking establishment on the Florida East Coast from Jacksonville to Key West, gave its supply of formaldehyde to preserve the monster and over 19 barrels were used. It was mounted by Prof. J. S. Wambeth, of Washington, the celebrated taxidermist who was recommended by the Smithsonian Institute. This is taken from the "Ohio State Journal".

FEMINISTS, OR JUST FOLKS?

Cub reporters on city papers, according to women readers, love to turn their cynical vocabulary loose in articles about "lady legislators," "lady mayors" and others whom they conceive to be freak feminists. Unless somebody gets all the women mayors together, no one can know what sort they really are. But here is an actual interview—by mail—with one of them:

"Two years ago Mary Paddock went to Florida. She had done her work, she felt, for two sons and four daughters to whom she had been both father and mother, were grown and gone out into the world. Driving south from Palm Beach she found what seemed the ideally peaceful spot in which she "might at least conscientiously indulge in a life of selfish ease with time to read and study and play."

"In the little village of Lantana, beside the still waters of beautiful Lake Worth, nestled a cottage. It was picturesque, inviting, yet secluded. Graceful coconut palms and fruit trees surrounded and shaded it. It was scarcely nine miles from Palm Beach, yet Lantana was a quiet, tiny village, barely incorporated. A few weeks later I found myself the happy owner of the cottage. My daughter was with me. My one idea seemed about to be fulfilled; here I should find peace and pleasure, indeed a satisfactorily life in ideal environment.

"But alas! Before many weeks the mayor of the little town was forced to resign on account of ill health. I was persuaded to allow my name to appear on the ticket to fulfill the unexpired term.

"You know the outcome. I woke up one day to find that I was a full-fledged mayor. I can't say that I felt any happiness over the honor conferred upon me. But I decided to do my best to make a success of this new and responsible undertaking.

"A charter for a town of a few hundred inhabitants," Mrs. Paddock imagines, "is as weird and wonderful as instrument as the one under which New York's Tammany Hall rose to fame. And a mayor's work is absorbingly interesting, when aided by Lantana folks' spirit of co-operation."

Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything.

"I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down.

"I was very nervous. . . . I would have a tired, dull headache.

"I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second . . . I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui.

"I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait, when the sun shines, to garden. I am feeling fine."

Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.

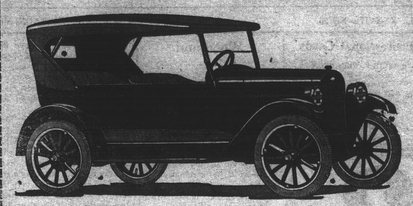
Health Insurance for the Whole Family



CHEVROLET

Without counting the daily utility of a Chevrolet for going back and forth to work, shopping or taking the children to school, etc., its value in saving doctor's bills, broadening your mental horizon and keeping the whole family physically fit, amounts to more than the cost of the car and its upkeep. It is more of an essential to the modern family than anything else but a home. Chevrolet meets the requirements of the modern family because it is economical to buy and maintain, because of its excellent appearance and riding comfort, because it can be depended upon, and because it is so easy to drive that any member of the family can use it.

Miss Henrietta Sale, of Lynchburg, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. L. Moore, here.

Miss Emma Jones, of Buckingham, who will teach at Liberty Chapel, was in town yesterday.

H. H. Coffman, the Porters Pain King man. is in the county making his annual rounds.

Misses Virginia and Dorothy Moore, of Roanoke, are visiting at the home of Edgar Martin.

Mrs. A. J. Martin has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. T. Scruggs, in Petersburg.

Misses Lucye Caldwell and Mary Ann LeGrande are visiting Mrs. W. J. Mason at Rice, Va

Miss Lucille O'Brien has returned from a visit to relatives at Clifton Forge and Hot Springs, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Alvis, of Clifton Forge, Va., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. O'Brien.

Mrs. Schuyler Marshall, of Charleston, W. Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C Caldwell.

Miss Ruby Caldwell is attending a house party at the home of Misses Virginia and Carolyn Hunter in Lynchburg and visiting other relatives there.

Mrs. Ola Patteson and daughter, Miss Earle, and Miss Martha Rosser spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Glenn, near Prospect, Va.

Cards received here from Rev. A. L. Stevenson and touring party say they have again reached the U. S. homeward bound.

Miss Catherin Caldwell and brother, Jones, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Thompson in Lynchburg and their sister, Miss Evie Lena Caldwell at Memorial hospital there.

Miss Mary Sweeney, of Lynchburg, Chapman Ramsey, F. L. Murphey, of Gretna, were guests at the home of H. C. Babcock here Sunday.

The Appomattox baseball club won an easy victory over the Gladstone boys here Saturday— 28 to 6. Our boys will play the Charlotte Grays here Saturday.

Saturday Director Wingfield, of the Co-Ops made a splendid address to the farmers here, and so did W. K. Seniff. The prospect for all Co-Ops is much better and all are urged to join hands with the farmer who is trying to up-hold prices and stabilize the prices for tobacco.

Officers raided a farm near Concord Depot Friday and arrested Homer Coleman, Dallas Steppe, Helen McElroy, and Tree Hubble all charged with some violation of the prohibition laws. They are in jail at Rustburg. The farm is very near the Appomattox county line it not in Appomattox.

Saturday evening about 11:30 lightning struck a tree in town, put out practically all the lights and aroused the sleepers so terrific and sudden was the bolt. Some declared the town was being dynamited. A fine refreshing rain followed the electrical display and crops and gardens are greatly benefited.

Misses Mildred and Elizabeth Trent are visiting friends in Norfolk.

Rev. H. W. Dunkley and wife are visitors at the home of LeRoy Smith.

R. L. Burke is attending Agricultural Convention of Virginia Banker's Association at V. P. I.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cook and son, John Randolph, of Norfolk, are visiting Mrs. J. E. Caldwell

Rev. Loflin, of Church Road, is conducting a revival at New Hope Baptist church this week.

Col. J. W. Flood is home again from the hospital where he has been confined for several weeks.

Miss Ilene Smith spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. M. C. Caldwell, at "Oak Grove".

Charles F. James, the druggist, is in a Lynchburg hospital, where he underwent an operation yesterday.

Mesdames. Fred Kellam. A. H. Hay, and Geo. H. Wiley, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. W. B. Caldwell this week.

Uncle Lee Patteson, one of our oldest colored citizens, died in Lynchburg hospital Tuesday and remains were interred here to-day.

Miss Frances O'Brien returned home Sunday from a two week's visit to Chase City and Fort Mitchell. She was accompanied home by Miss Tounsenel of Fort Mitchell, and Messrs. Silas Campbell and Bob Sel, of Keyesville.

W. J. Trent reports fine prices for a load of lambs sold on Lynchburg market. Buck knows how to handle sheep, and it is a pity that our farmers don't put on a small bunch of sheep.

The Appomattox Hardware Co. has put in another large gas tank and put in service a large truck to distribute the Texas oil products. Appomattox grows apace but what the people are especially interested in is how much reduction in price of oil and gas will be made.

Friday evening the residents were alarmed by the cry of fire again in our town — blaze was seen rising rapidly from the stave mill of J. E. Sears. Mr. Sears was promptly on the job and with the aid of friends and near-by water put out the fire before it got a headway. It caught from a pile of ashes closely surrounded by rubbish. Thirty minutes later in discovering the fire would have probably resulted in a loss of $30,000.

The Ould Motor Co., Appomattox, has just doubled its floor space here and now have a beautiful show room for Star and Durant cars. The up-to-date shop headed by master mechanic and able assistants, repair parts in stock, gas and oils, free air and water gives Appomattox a popular and convenient place for car owners to get the best and reliable service at moderate prices. No town can boast of a better service station.

Friday Commissioners Clement and Franklin sold at public auction with Atlantic Coast Realty Co., as auctioneers the Martha T. Fleshman farm here at $18,-336 The auctioneers had lunch, brass band and prizes for those who attended the sale, and there was a good crowd present. In the afternoon the J. P. L. Fleshman estate at Chap was sold and George R. Purdum became the purchaser of the 880 acres at $7 per acre. Many of the lots purchased have already been resold at advanced prices, and several new buildings will soon be erected on the property. The sale was well handled by the auctioneers and the bidding was lively.

Last week someone attempted to burglarize the home of Mr. Hawk's, who lives near the Campbell and Appomattox county line, but was frightened away by the use of a flash light. Mr Hawk secured blood hound and it is said followed the track to the home of Mr. Erne, who lives in Appomattox. A few nights ago a crowd gathered at the home of Erne and asked for information or an explanation. Erne denied all knowledge of the attempted robbery and the crowd dispersed. It is said the matter will be invested by the Campbell authorities. Erne is said to bear a good reputation by those who know him and he can prove a complete alibi. It would seem that little dependence can be placed in the blood hound.

Guthrie—Payne

At the home of the bride in Culpeper county, Monday, July 28th, Miss Elsie Payne became the bride of Mr. Conway Guthrie. The contracting parties are well-known in this county, where the bride taught school for several terms. Mr. Guthrie is a young business man at Brookneal, where the pair will live.

Peaches for Sale

Commencing today we will for several weeks have for sale and delivery at Appomattox, plenty of fine peaches, both free and cling stone, grown on Ferguson's Brick House orchard, which have been taken over and are being operated by the Virginia Experiment Station at Blacksburg. These orchards are being well fertilized, cultivated and sprayed and the peaches are of a good size and flavor. See, B. G. Anderson, Director of Experiment work or S. L. Ferguson, Owner of Orchards.

FIRESTONE TIRES
The Source of Extra Mileage

FIRESTONE has come to the strategic position of being able to give greater tire value, through its twenty-two years of experience and growth.

Only the cumulative knowledge that Firestone possesses, the highly developed manufacturing and distributing organization, and the gathering of a corps of skilled designers and builders, could account for Firestone quality, sold at prices so low as to create an extraordinary tire value.

The volume of Firestone production permits buying economies, and the reduction of overhead expense. This, in turn, has made it possible to adopt superior, but costlier processes that have resulted in a big mileage increase.

Notable among these is double gum-dipping—a special Firestone process of first importance. In the majority of cord tires the individual plies of cord fabric are merely coated with rubber—known as "calendering." Firestone immerses the cord fabric in vats of liquid rubber then applies two coats of rubber to each ply.

The purpose of this is to overcome internal friction—the wear caused by one cord rubbing against another. The carcass thus built, is livelier, stronger, capable of delivering more mileage.

The above is cited merely as an example of how Firestone proceeds to give you greater value. In tread design and compound, in air-bag curing, rubber blending and tempering, bead and sidewall construction, you will find other advantages that enter into the ultimate result—uniformly greater mileage and increased enjoyment from your car. The volume of Firestone distribution enables us to offer the following reduced prices.

30x3	Special	Tires	$ 6.35	Tube	$1.35	30x3½	Special	Tires	$7.35	Tube	$1.50
